MUHAMMAD HASSAN

MERN Stack Developer

ABOUT

I am a final-year Software Engineering student at GIFT University, Gujranwala, passionate about full stack development with the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js). Throughout my academic career, I've built various projects using MERN, enhancing my ability to create scalable and efficient web and mobile apps. Driven by a constant desire to learn, I stay updated with the latest industry trends. I look forward to applying my MERN stack expertise to develop innovative solutions and contribute to the software engineering community.

CAREER OBJECTIVES

My goal is to build an IT company that leverages my technical expertise and entrepreneurial spirit. I aim to develop innovative solutions that meet market demands, focusing on personalized learning and critical thinking. By fostering a culture of continuous growth and creativity, I aspire to drive technological advancements.

FINAL YEAR PROJECT

My Final Year Project is a collaborative learning platform designed to encourage interaction, knowledge sharing, and collaboration among students, instructors, and industry professionals in Pakistan. Developed using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js), the goal is to create a vibrant and scalable learning community.

MY PROJECTS

- Air Reservation System - Java CMD based
- Instagram Clone - React Native and Firebase
- PetStore Website - PHP laravel framework and MySQL
- CollabLearn (FYP) - MERN Stack
